The Pirates (27-2) will face seventh-seeded Flagler in the PBC Tournament Final on Saturday at 2:00 p.m. This is the seventh straight tournament final for Armstrong and the Pirates will be shooting for a third consecutive tournament crown. Montevallo, who fell to the Pirates in the PBC Tournament semifinal last year as well, sees its season come to a close with a 21-12 record.

Sophomore Emily Wylie for the Pirates and Sarah Guidry for the Falcons dueled in the first set as Guidry had seven of Montevallo's 10 kills, but Wylie had eight kills to help the Pirates take the first set by seven points. It would turn out to be the closest set of the match as Armstrong hit an outstanding .583 in the second set, allowing Montevallo only one point on its own serve, and senior Stephanie Sfara would deliver nine kills in the final set to clinch the match.

Sfara finished the match with a match-high 15 kills and no errors in 25 attacks for a .600 hitting percentage for the Pirates, while Wylie finished with 13 kills and a .556 hitting percentage. Senior Kamryn Sherman, the PBC's Setter of the Year, delivered 38 assists and senior Morgan Hill, the PBC's co-Libero of the Year, notched 19 digs.
